

Pipe connections Bufferblock

Standard PVC pipes can be connected to the end of the Bufferblocks via plastic side panels.

The panels can be clicked together to form a continuous panel.

After placing the panels the blocks are wrapped in geotextile.

Side connections are possible through a special connection block. This block can be supplied on request.

